

The Grant County Archaeological Society's

CHARITY EVENT FOR THE WNMU MUSEUM!

Support the WNMU Museum's curation of their historic documents and photo archives.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Featured Speaker

Carolyn O'Bagy Davis, historian & award-winning author. Inducted member of the AZ Quilters Hall of Fame and founding president of the Tucson Quilters Guild and Old Pueblo Archaeology Center. Carolyn introduces us to Hopi Quilts and Textiles as Cultural Artforms

Fundraising Activities

In-person minimum $5 donation at the Museum's front desk. Online minimum $5 donation to the Museum payable via the GCAS's secure Paypal portal. The Museum welcomes and appreciates all additional donations to support their curation project. All these proceeds go to the WNMU Museum.

Hopi Quilt Sales

After the talk, Carolyn will offer several original 25" x 30" quilted wall hangings designed and created by Hopi artist Bonnie Nampeyo Chapella. Each of Bonnie's original designs will be sold for $150 each. Proceeds from one quilt - the Butterfly Maiden shown here - will be donated to the WNMU Museum.
